

constitution of the state, and if found proper by said convention for altering and modifying the said constitution.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the judges of the elections aforesaid, throughout this year, in making their respective returns of the votes for delegates, aforesaid, also to set forth the number of votes given in favor of or in opposition to a convention as aforesaid, and thereupon the several clerks of the county courts, shall certify to the Governor under seal of said court, the returns of the votes for delegates as aforesaid, and also the returns of votes as to a convention as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That within fifty days after the said certificate of returns to the governor, he is hereby requested and instructed to give notice by publication in the several newspapers of this state, for twenty days, of the returns of votes for delegates, and as to a convention as aforesaid; and if a majority of the whole number of votes taken as aforesaid at said election, shall be in favor of a convention as aforesaid, the Governor in and by said publication shall appoint a day within sixty days from the date of said publication, for the election of representatives in the manner hereinafter stated to form a convention as aforesaid, and shall include in said publication, the publication of this act.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That said election shall be held at the places and by the judges assigned for holding elections of delegates to the General Assembly; and the representatives to be chosen shall be chosen from within the limits of each congressional district that shall have been established; and the representatives chosen for each district shall be residents therein respectively; each district electing eight representatives for each member of congress, and it shall be entitled to choose.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the judges of elections shall make returns of the elections of representatives as aforesaid to the clerks of the several county courts of the counties where they respectively shall hold the elections, and the clerks of such county courts shall on such returns being filed in their said offices, certify the same under seal of said courts to the Governor and Council.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the Governor within sixty days after such election publish the names of the number of votes given for them respectively for the representatives voted for as aforesaid; and the publication